RUSSIAN PEASANT IN HEALTH AT 113. RECALLS NAPOLEON

VIENNA, Austria.—A correspondent of the Zeit declares that, while passing through Volhynia, he discovered in the village of Karpiwka a peasant who recently had celebrated his 113th birthday. The peasant claimed he distinctly remembered seeing Napoleon at the head of his army on the march to Moscow.

This was in 1812, when the present centennial was a boy of 9. The man, the correspondent says, appeared to be in excellent health.

AUCTION BULLETIN

When you bought that fine Dining suite what did you do with the old set, put it in the barn for the worms to eat, or did you send it at once to the Auction Rooms to turn it into ready money? We received several lots last week, but are looking for more, especially from those who do not like to part with old furniture. There are some people who will not part with it, strange to say, and there are others who want for an old sideboard which is out of date enough to buy a William & Mary dining suite. "It can't be did," you know, but if you are quite finished with your good useful but worn furniture, then, send for the Auction Room man who will buy it outright or sell it very advantageously for you by Public Auction at Honolulu Auction Rooms, J. S. Bailey.

BIGGEST SHIP LINE IN WORLD BOUGHT BY BRITISH NOBLE

LONDON, Eng.—The biggest ship-ship deal in the history of England has just been consummated at Hull. By it the Wilson steamship line is acquired by Sir John Ellerman, chairman of the Ellerman line. The Wilson line was the biggest privately owned shipping company in the world, operating 84 vessels having a total tonnage of 206,000. The figures were not revealed.
